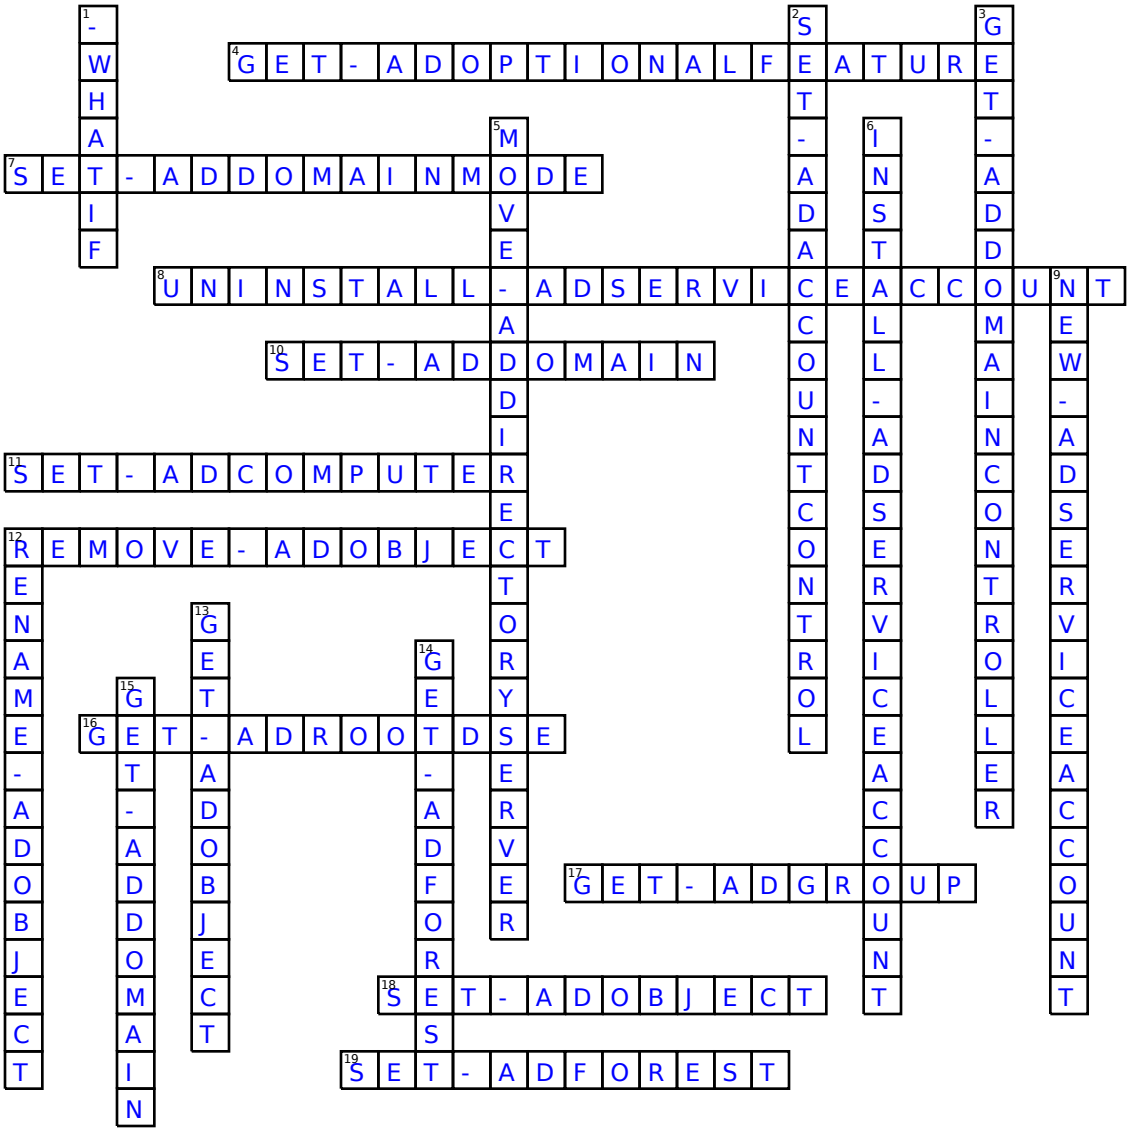
AD Clean up with Powershell 2 of 4

Tim Bolton



Across

4 Gets one or more Active Directory optional features.
7 Sets the domain functional level for an Active Directory domain.
8 Uninstalls an Active Directory service account from a computer.
10 Modifies an Active Directory domain.
11 Modifies an Active Directory computer.
12 Removes an Active Directory object.
16 Gets the root of a domain controller information tree.
17 Gets one or more Active Directory groups.
18 Modifies an Active Directory object.
19 Modifies an Active Directory forest.

Down

1 Per Jeffery Hicks, "add Support to this Switch." It instructs the command to which it is applied to run but only to display the objects that would be affected by running the command and what changes would be made to those objects.
2 Modifies user account control (UAC) values for an Active Directory account.
3 Gets one or more Active Directory domain controllers, based on discoverable services criteria, search parameters, or by providing a domain controller identifier, such as the NetBIOS name.
5 Moves a domain controller in AD DS to a new site.
6 Installs an Active Directory service account on a computer.
9 Creates a new Active Directory service account.
12 Changes the name of an Active Directory object.
13 Gets one or more Active Directory objects.
14 Gets an Active Directory forest.
15 Gets an Active Directory domain.